BRIEF SYNOPSIS

Brownie is the guardian of the county hotel. He carries the grips, hats, etc of the city guests, and is the playmate of the owner's son.

When Smith reaches the hotel - the city of table steaks, as it were - he falls in love with the owners sweet daughter, Bartine. Charlie, also, is in love with the daughter, and the affair becomes an earnest one.

Smith is progressing wonderfully. His final obstacle - the little brother - is conquered with a quarter, and Smith winds up his love career by running off with Bartine and marrying her.
